Info	Named after a holy mountain in Siem Reap - "Phnom Koulen" which in its name translates to "mountain of the lychees", is a major symbolic importance for Cambodia as it was the birthplace of the ancient khmer empire. The mountain site is known for its lush forests, cascading waterfalls, and intricate carvings. Koulen Mountain provides spiritual guidance and comfort to those who visit. Taking inspiration from the historical significance, Koulen Central Hotel has established a product that ties together nature, peace and serenity. Ascending from the grand lobby up to the 5th floor, the hotel is immensely filled with grand carvings and colour palettes reflecting rich Khmer Culture.
